

Anglo-Chinese School (ACS) Scholarships & Educational Funds

Before setting up the Foundation, Tan Sri was already actively involved in improving the educational welfare of ACS, his alma mater. Crediting much of his success to the sound educational foundation he had received from the school, Tan Sri was quoted to have said this when ACS wished to pay him a tribute:

"All I ask for in return is to produce good students with a moral fibre."

Among the Foundation's contributions to both ACS and ACJC (Anglo-Chinese Junior College):
